DST Global Solutions wins FTF News Technology Innovation Award 2011 for its Anova Middle Office Analytics Suite

New York, April 18, 2011 – DST Global Solutions, a leading provider of technology solutions to the financial services industry, is today proud to announce that it has won the category of “Performance Management – Most Effective Client Reporting Solution” in the FTF News Technology Innovation Awards for 2011.

FTF News is a leading global, interactive community for securities trading and operations professionals. The winning technology and services vendor is determined by the number of votes cast by registered subscribers to FTF News.

DST Global Solutions’ Anova platform provides an aggregated view of firm-wide core investment data and analytics. Anova includes several applications such as industry-leading performance measurement and attribution, as well as role-based dashboard reporting and visualisation for various functions within an investment organisations—from fund managers and compliance teams, through to end clients. DST Global Solutions’ Middle Office Analytics applications are currently used by more than 40 clients around the globe.

Maureen Nolan Lowe, president and founder of FTF News, commented on DST Global Solutions’ win: “We have been very impressed by the overwhelming number of votes received for the FTF News Technology Innovation Awards. Voting was very competitive amongst the industry leader finalists. We are delighted to announce DST Global Solutions as winner of the ‘Performance Measurement - Most Effective Client Reporting Solution’ for its Anova platform.”

Arun Sarwal, CEO of DST Global Solutions’ Investment Management Solutions division added, “We are feel honoured to have won this industry opinion-led award. This resounding vote of confidence reinforces our commitment to innovation generally and Anova specifically. Winning this award has been possible thanks to our clients' continued belief and confidence in our solutions and our people that stand behind them."

Des Gallacher, DST Global Solutions' head of Data Management and Analytics added, "I am delighted to see that all the hard work and commitment that has gone into Anova to date has been recognised in this special way by the people who count most—the users."

Anova is a global operating platform that provides organisations with a holistic analysis of their investment data, from any location in the world. Anova's scalability means it can handle high volumes and empowers participants in the investment industry to be able meet the ever-increasing demands placed on their firms' business by clients and regulators.
